

Expert Working Group's Terms of Reference
Hazard Assessment & Classification
Terms of Reference

2016 Excerpt

Yves Guengant, chairman

The Expert Working Group is to

- Define and publicise a joint position on the responses descriptors improvements,
- Define and publicise a joint position on slow heating threat / slow cook off test,
- Define and publicise a joint position on Fragment Impact Test,
- Monitor the evolutions of the regulatory framework in the field of ammunitions and energetic materials safety by developing and maintaining permanent relationship with National and International Authorities in order to propose possible IMEMG's positions in response to such evolutions.

Task definition is dedicated to fulfil current objectives.